MALTZ MUSEUM OF JEWISH HERITAGE PRESENTS
The Enemy Within: Terror in America–1776 to Today
Opening April 3, 2009

Beachwood, OH, March 13, 2009 – Where were you on 9/11/2001? Like D-Day or the day President Kennedy was shot, most Americans remember the moment they first heard of the largest terrorist attacks in American history. But acts of violence on American soil are far from new, and the questions they raise of how to balance national security with individual rights go back to our very beginnings.

The Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage presents a fascinating historical perspective with The Enemy Within: Terror in America–1776 to Today, opening Friday, April 3, 2009. A creation of the enormously popular International Spy Museum in Washington, D.C., The Enemy Within has drawn enthusiastic crowds to The Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum, the Exploris Museum in North Carolina, and the Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford Presidential Libraries and Museums. This is its first appearance in Ohio.

See forgotten stories of domestic terrorists and foreign agents, militant radicals and saboteurs who threatened America's sense of security for more than 230 years. Explore questions of how we identify enemies and keep the country safe without compromising the civil liberties upon which America was founded.

Travel back through time to discover dramatic stories including the capture of the City of Washington and torching of the White House (1814); the Haymarket Square bombing (1886); the Palmer Raids (1919); the rise of the KKK, and the Weather Underground. Stories are told in themed environments that evoke the spirit of the times and include historic photographs and film footage, interactive displays, and video. Artifacts include a piece of one of the airplanes that hit the World Trade Center on 9/11. A fascinating timeline traces more than 170 events.

Under Siege, a powerful film exploring today's terrorist threat and response shows continuously during Museum hours. A series of and thought-provoking programs expand on the themes raised in the exhibition, including:

- a panel discussion with local law enforcement about home-grown terrorists
- a lecture by Dr. Geoffrey Mearns, one of the Oklahoma City prosecutors
- a special evening featuring Spy Museum Director and former CIA-operative Peter Earnest
- a musical look at protest songs over the years
- a reprise of Elaine Rembrandt's sellout one-woman performance of Jewish female spies.

The Enemy Within is presented with support from the Citizens of Cuyahoga County through Cuyahoga Arts and Culture and The Ohio Arts Council, and media sponsorship from WJW-FOX8.

About the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage: An American Story

Opened in 2005, the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage introduces visitors to the beauty and diversity of that heritage in the context of the American experience, promotes an understanding of Jewish history, religion and culture and builds bridges of tolerance and understanding with people of all religions, races, cultures and ethnic backgrounds. It includes An American Story, tracing Ohio's immigrant history and heritage, and The Temple-Tifereth Israel Gallery, an internationally-recognized collection of Judaica. One admission includes unlimited access.

The Museum was created as a partnership of The Maltz Family Foundation, the Jewish Community Federation's Centennial Initiative and The Temple-Tifereth Israel, with research support from the Western Reserve Historical Society.

I Ain't Marching Anymore: Protest Music in America -- 1776 to Today

$15/$12 members

American protest music did not begin with Bob Dylan, or even with his greatest influence, Woody Guthrie. Since this country's earliest times, songs have inspired and incited -- anti-war songs from the Revolution to Iraq; human rights songs from slavery to the civil rights movement; songs about everything from the Depression to pollution to nuclear proliferation to urban sprawl; and in every genre of music from folk and country, to jazz and pop; rock and punk, to R&B and hip-hop. Join musicians from Roots of American Music in a lively evening of music and history.

Sunday, June 14 - 1pm

Dog Day Afternoon: Police Dog Demonstration

Free (admission to the Museum additional)

Join the excitement with this awe-inspiring demonstration of police K-9 dogs by B.A.R.K (Buckeye Area Regional K-9 and see exactly how these amazing animals keep our community safe.

The Oklahoma City Bombing - Reflections of a Prosecutor

$10/$8 members

CSU Law School Dean Geoffrey Mearns, one of the federal prosecutors who participated in the successful prosecution of Terry Nichols for his role in the bombing of the federal building in Oklahoma City, discusses why Nichols and Timothy McVeigh planned and executed the most deadly domestic terrorism attack in our country's history. Dean Mearns will also discuss lessons learned from the response to domestic terrorism in combating international terrorism.

Wednesday, July 8 - 7pm

Of Civil Wrongs and Rights: The Fred Korematsu Story

$10/$8 members

1999 Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient Fred Korematsu was probably never more American than when he resisted, and then challenged in court, the forced internment of Japanese Americans during World War II. Korematsu lost his landmark Supreme Court case in 1944, but never his indignation and resolve. This engrossing documentary reveals the untold story of the 40-year legal fight to turn a civil injustice into a civil rights victory. Internment survivor, Roy Ebihara leads a post-viewing discussion.

Story Ideas

What is terrorism? Who defines it?

Individual liberties vs. the rights of the state/country

Does the end justify the means? Can violence ever be justified?

What rights are constitutionally protected?

The lens of time - today's revolutionary is tomorrow's Congressman

Where would you draw the line?

Is racial profiling acceptable to protect national security? Who decides?

How has terrorism changed the way we live?

- March, 2009 release of Sara Jane Olson, member of Symbionese Liberation Army, from California prison
- March, 2009 Obama administration rescinds Bush administration standard on withholding information from the public, and in February announced plans to close prison at Guantanamo Bay
- Economy now said to be #1 threat to the US, not terrorism

COMING SOON TO THE MALTZ MUSEUM OF JEWISH HERITAGE

THE NAZI OLYMPICS BERLIN 1936 From the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum

In August 1936, Adolf Hitler's Nazi dictatorship scored a huge propaganda success as host of the Summer Olympics in Berlin. The Games were a brief, two-week interlude in Germany's escalating campaign against its Jewish population and the country's march toward war. The exhibition explores the issues surrounding the 1936 Olympic Games--the Nazis' use of propaganda, the intense boycott debate, the history of the torch run, the historic performance of Jesse Owens, and more.
