Beth E. Mooney

8:30pm  Dessert Reception
Beth E. Mooney has been Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of KeyCorp since May 1, 2011. In 2010, she was named President and became a member of KeyCorp’s Board of Directors. Mooney graduated from the University of Texas and earned her Master of Business Administration degree from Southern Methodist University. She has been recognized by Forbes Magazine as one of “The World’s 100 Most Powerful Women” and by Fortune Magazine as one of the “Top 50 Most Powerful Women in Business.” Mooney was named the #1 Most Powerful Woman in Banking for three years before “retiring” to the Hall of Fame to make way for other winners.

Other accolades for Mooney include receiving the “Corporate Responsibility Award” from the Foreign Policy Association for championing KeyBank’s civic leadership and community outreach, receiving the 2017 “Women of Note Legacy Award” from the Cleveland Foundation for her outstanding business, civic, and philanthropic leadership in Greater Cleveland, and also in 2017, being named American Banker’s “Banker of the Year.” Mooney is on the board of directors of United Way of Greater Cleveland and was co-chair of the 2017–2018 campaign. Mooney is the immediate past chair of the Greater Cleveland Partnership (GCP), one of the largest Chambers of Commerce in the nation, and remains a member of its board and executive committee. She is also a trustee and treasurer of the board of the Musical Arts Association (The Cleveland Orchestra) and a trustee of the Cleveland Clinic Foundation.

It is our honor to recognize her ongoing contribution to the vitality of Northeast Ohio.

Leonard Bernstein: The Power of Music illustrates Leonard Bernstein’s life, Jewish identity, and social activism. Audiences may be familiar with many of Bernstein’s works, notably West Side Story, but not necessarily with how he responded to the political and social crises of his day. Visitors will find an individual who expressed the restlessness, anxiety, fear, and hope of an American Jew living through World War II and the Holocaust, Vietnam, and turbulent social change—what Bernstein referred to as his “search for a solution to the 20th-century crisis of faith.”

Leonard Bernstein: The Power of Music was orchestrated by the National Museum of American Jewish History in Philadelphia and made possible in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities: Exploring the human endeavor. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this exhibition, do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

This summer we are partnering with Bellefaire Jewish Children’s Bureau to celebrate the power within each of us to help someone when they need us, including when we need help ourselves. The Everyday Heroes Activity Center uses the Maltz Museum’s special exhibition space to offer children and families a way to explore the values of everyday heroes, celebrating every day superpowers within each of us through books, crafts, and movement.

Stop the Hate® challenges young people to consider the impact of intolerance and the role of the individual in effecting change. The Maltz Museum initiative celebrates Northeast Ohio students committed to creating a more accepting, inclusive society.

No single person on Earth is exactly the same as another. We are all different. And we all matter. The time is now to support compassion and empathy — not only for others, but also for ourselves.

In eleven years, we have provided $1.1 million in college scholarships and anti-bias education grants, and we have engaged over 30,000 students across 12 Northeast Ohio counties to stand up and speak out against hate.

I believe that once we educate others and reinforce our shared humanity, we can do away with much of the ignorance, bigotry, and hatred that plague us as a society. While this is much easier said than done, the pursuit of this goal is well worth the work it entails.
