Condemned to Devil's Island!

Jewish Army officer Alfred Dreyfus was sentenced to life in prison for a crime he did not commit. In 19th-century France - the most enlightened country on earth - he became the scapegoat of a government obsessed with national security, as well as the target of media attacks warped by bigotry. Learn the shocking story behind the first "trial of the century" in this premiere exhibition created by the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage.

You'll be transported to 1890’s Paris-Belle Epoque - The Beautiful Era and the dark realities of anti-Semitism and government corruption. This thought provoking, limited engagement exhibition, is in collaboration with the Lorraine Beitler Collection of the Dreyfus Affair, University of Pennsylvania Libraries. Created exclusively by the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage.
I am honored to work with our devoted Board of Trustees, an outstanding team of committed colleagues and members of the diverse communities of Northeast Ohio in fulfilling the far-reaching mission of the Museum.

Since opening eight years ago we have welcomed more than 240,000 visitors, as well as some 60,000 students taking part in school tours and anti-bias education.

Our Stop the Hate essay contest continues to grow – a platform for young people to chronicle their own life experiences and offer ideas for a better world.

And our world-class special exhibitions explore a wide range of engaging and thought-provoking subjects. This month, for example, we premiere TRAITOR! Spies, Lies and Justice Denied, an absorbing look into the infamous Dreyfus Affair that was created by the Museum for a limited engagement opening October 8.

As you can see, the Museum continues to educate, inform and inspire. I invite you to join us as we enter our ninth year of service to the community.

It’s not often that moments of silence fill a room of nearly 500 people, but on May 30 during the inaugural Maltz Heritage Award program honoring Delos M. Cosgrove, MD of the Cleveland Clinic, you could hear a pin drop. Between the invocation, video presentations, Stop the Hate essay presentation and benediction, guests were inspired beyond words.

Take a cue from the Rotary Club of Chagrin Highlands and stage your next meeting at the Maltz Museum. The tour and boxed lunch are all part of the program.

“We are to be congratulated for a special afternoon for us. All the friendly smiles when we arrived and a bright, sunny day combined for a perfect visit. Thank you again.”

“The Maltz Museum really has a heart when it comes to helping us display our art. You are also great at creating an atmosphere for all those who visit there. Thank you also for making certain that everything went well with the curtain. In the future we wish you continued success because when it comes to museums, you are the best!”

As he sits in the park, he suddenly sees an old friend whom he hasn't seen since they quarreled when they were yeshiva students together. Hersh, a rabbi, survived Auschwitz, and his faith was strengthened by the ordeal. Chaim escaped the Nazis, but he had lost his faith long before.
