Dear Friends,

I’ve always been a fan of music, easily getting swept up in the mood of various rhythms and sounds. Music can reflect my feelings – joyous or painful. But here at the Maltz Museum we are particularly interested in how music is used as a form of activism. This September we will explore just that when we open the special exhibition Leonard Bernstein: The Power of Music, created by the National Museum of American Jewish History in Philadelphia. Bernstein was not only the youngest, and first Jewish conductor of a major U.S. orchestra, he also used his public presence as a voice for change by taking a stand for what he believed was right. We will celebrate his life and legacy starting September 25, 2019. Don’t miss this exhibition. It’s going to be one of our best yet.

See you at the Maltz Museum,

David Schafer
Managing Director

DON’T MISS THE NEXT EXCLUSIVE MEMBER OPENING FOR LEONARD BERNSTEIN: THE POWER OF MUSIC ON SEPTEMBER 24

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SPECIAL SAVINGS WITH A 10% DISCOUNT ON MUSEUM STORE PURCHASES FOR ALL MEMBERS
Leonard Bernstein: The Power of Music is the first large-scale museum exhibition to illustrate Leonard Bernstein's life, Jewish identity, and social activism. Audiences may be familiar with many of Bernstein's works, notably West Side Story, but not necessarily with how he responded to the political and social crises of his day. Visitors will find an individual who expressed the restlessness, anxiety, fear, and hope of an American Jew living through World War II and the Holocaust, Vietnam, and turbulent social change—what Bernstein referred to as his “search for a solution to the 20th-century crisis of faith.”

RELIGION & IDENTITY
Explore Bernstein's Jewish roots and examine artifacts, including the piano he used in composing music, that reflected his identity.

SOCIAL JUSTICE
Learn how Bernstein broke barriers by hiring black performers in the Broadway debut of the musical On The Town.

EXPRESSION THROUGH MUSIC
Discover the origins of the groundbreaking musical West Side Story with Bernstein's own annotated copy of Romeo and Juliet.

POLITICAL ACTIVISM
Consider why Bernstein, of Jewish faith, would choose a Catholic Mass to express anxieties of the 1970s with his musical MASS.

LEONARD BERNSTEIN AT 101: IS HE STILL MR. MUSIC AMERICA?
Instructor: Eric Kisch, Instructor of Lifelong Learning
In life Leonard Bernstein was larger than life: conductor, composer, teacher, social activist, celebrity, and family man (albeit troubled by personal demons and doubts). Now that celebrations marking his 100th birthday have ended, what of his legacy remains? In this course, we will review Bernstein’s manifold achievements and consider whether he merits our continued attention, admiration, inspiration and maybe even love. Since Lenny was his best advocate we will use lots of examples – video and audio – to make our case and to reach a balanced verdict.

Time: 1 – 3 p.m.
Venue: The Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage
Price: Member of Lifelong Learning cost: $96. Nonmember cost: $116

BY ADAM KRAAR
PLAY DISCUSSION GROUP
THURS, OCT 3, 1-2:30PM
$10 General Admission,
$5 for Maltz Museum Members

Adam Kraar explores art as the expression of an immigrant’s identity. Set mostly in airport lounges, it features a young woman trying to reconnect her scattered family by recapturing the elusive notes of her father’s clarinet. When all else is gone, there is still one tie to her immigrant roots.

THE VALUE OF NAMES
BY JEFFREY SWEET
PLAY DISCUSSION GROUP
THURS, NOV 7, 1-2:30PM
$10 General Admission,
$5 for Maltz Museum Members

Jeffrey Sweet looks at how artists function during times of social change. In the 1950s, the McCarthy/HUAC hearings forced artists to betray each other, derailing friendships and ending careers. The Value of Names is a contemporary classic about the lifelong impact of demagoguery.

WOMAN BEFORE A GLASS
BY LANIE ROBERTSON
PLAY DISCUSSION GROUP
THURS, DEC 5, 1-2:30PM
$10 General Admission,
$5 for Maltz Museum Members

Lanie Robertson’s one-woman show looks at the use of privilege to effect change. We meet the iconic, glorious, and irrepressible Peggy Guggenheim, the woman who used her privilege to save contemporary art from Nazi destruction. A Jew herself, also on the endangered list, she was having none of it.

ABOUT THE CONTEST
The 12th Annual Stop the Hate:®
Youth Speak Out essay contest celebrates students committed to creating a more accepting, inclusive society. Each year, the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage gives out $100,000 in scholarships, awards, and anti-bias education grants in recognition of 6–12th grade upstanders.

HOW TO ENTER
This year we honor the memory and spirit of maestro Leonard Bernstein, one of the greatest artists of the 20th century, whose life and legacy is explored in the Maltz Museum’s special exhibition Leonard Bernstein: The Power of Music. When speaking about why he wrote music he famously said, “This will be our reply to violence: to make music more intensely, more devotedly than ever before.”
In 500 words or less, think about your own life. Have you witnessed or experienced acts of injustice, racism, bigotry, or discrimination?
How were you impacted by what you experienced, saw, or heard? What did you do, or what will you do, in response to these circumstances in order to create justice and positive change in your community?

Resources, tips, a complete list of rules,
important dates, and prizes are available

ECHOES & REFLECTIONS PRESENTS: CONTEMPORARY ANTISEMITISM
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR MIDDLE & HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATORS
MON, DEC 9, 8:30AM-3:30PM
Free & open to educators; Seating is limited, registrations are requested
Read the news and it is clear: antisemitism is not a relic of the past but a hatred the world struggles with today. It is important that educators have the resources and tools to feel prepared to talk about contemporary manifestations of antisemitism and hate with students. This learning opportunity explores Echoes and Reflections classroom materials to support effective teaching of contemporary antisemitism, its global reach, and its expression in the form of hate speech, violence, denial, and distortion of the Holocaust. Educators will also be able to tour the Museum’s galleries while exploring ways to support students’ commitment and ability to actively respond to and prevent antisemitism and other forms of prejudice in their communities.
