honoring
Christopher M. Connor
At University Hospitals, science and compassion converge to create new ways to cure and better ways to care.

That is why we are committed to our community and proud to be a supporter of the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage as they honor former Executive Chairman of The Sherwin-Williams Company Christopher Connor as the 2018 Maltz Heritage Award Recipient.

Good Evening.

Welcome to the fifth annual Maltz Heritage Award. Tonight is an important opportunity to come together and recognize Christopher M. Connor, a catalyst for positive change in our community.

Committed to building bridges of understanding between people of all faiths, races, cultures and ethnic backgrounds, each year the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage honors an individual whose leadership, vision and humanity have changed our region for the better.

Your presence here tonight means that you too are invested in improving our world through education, diversity and respect.

Thank you for sharing this special evening with us.

Sincerely,

Milton Maltz

Honoree Remarks
Christopher M. Connor

EACH YEAR, THE MALTZ HERITAGE AWARD HONORS AN INSPIRING DIFFERENCE-MAKER.

An exemplary leader, Christopher M. Connor is the retired Executive Chairman of The Sherwin-Williams Company, a 150-year-old, $15.8 billion global leader in the paint and coatings industry. Over his 33-year career he held a number of increasingly important assignments in many different leadership roles, most recently serving as Chairman and CEO before taking on his assignment as Executive Chairman. He retired from the company on December 31, 2016.

During his tenure, Mr. Connor and the company were consistently recognized by many business publications for financial excellence, integrity of business practices, and a strong track record of shareholder wealth creation. Among the many business accolades, Harvard Business Review identified Mr. Connor as one of the top 100 best-performing CEOs in the world three times. His accomplishments in business and his contributions as a philanthropist have been transformative.

Mr. Connor currently serves on the Board of Directors of Yum Brands, International Paper, and the Eaton Corporation, where he serves as lead director. His many civic and community board engagements include University Hospitals Health System, The Playhouse Square Foundation, Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University, and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, where he serves as Chairman of the Board.

It is our honor to recognize his ongoing contribution to the vitality of Northeast Ohio.

It is inexpressibly hard to watch people treat my brother like he has no feelings, like he is lesser than, like he is not human. I soon began to realize that like most forms of discrimination, people’s preconceived notions had blinded them from truth.

Hannah Shuffer, 2018 Grand Prize Winner, Stop the Hate® Youth Speak Out

The Maltz Museum’s Stop the Hate® contest challenges young people to consider the benefits of a more inclusive society and the consequences of intolerance, while reflecting the Jewish values of responsible citizenship and respect for all humanity.

In 10 years, an estimated 30,000 students have participated across 12 Northeast Ohio counties and $1 million dollars has been awarded in college scholarships and anti-bias education grants.
